For a better experience, please enable JavaScript in your browser before proceeding.. Edit: It seems to want the cell reference (e g A1:R1) - which works Or you can just do 1:X where X is the number of rows you want to go down.. Depending on which view you use (page layout, etc) its easiest just to freeze the pane so your columnrow labels are visible.. ) How Do I Make A Non-Moving Header In Excel How To Create ColumnWhen the spreadsheet becomes more than one page, I have to manually insert the column headers, which can get annoying with all the copying and pasting required if I have to insert or delete a row, or two or more, in the previous page.. e If I dont manually insert the column headers, its hard to know what each column represents (particularly if they are similar numbers), unless I flip to the front page to see what that column represents.
