Gameplay

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ISiAsizfPH8>. I was one of many who felt a great loss when FML closed so when 90 minute fever came along i thought to myself lets give it a go hoping it could replace the void left by FML. I have to say i am not disappointed one bit, the game is so playable and thorough enjoyable. The developers are constantly adding new features and are also willing to listen to any ideas we have to offer. they dont just listen though they act on any ideas as well. Although not the finished article yet i honestly believe this will surpass FML eventually. If anyone is in two minds about purchasing the game then all i wil say is give it a go, i dont think many will regret it.

Hopefully see you all in game

Strummerville FC. This game would be amazing if it didn't CTD all the time, or bug out all the time. It's unfortunate that it is on steam with out any devs working on patching it up. I would LOVE to play this game bug free. I can't recommend you buy it unless it's less than 5 bucks.. There are dolphins and Hitchhiker's Guide to the Galaxy references.

No sharks though.. Fix the bug that makes ghosts able to run away from you into you and just carry you to whatever part of the map they please. That way you require to shoot them with the blue gun.

Oh and I don't know if this is intentional or not, but ghosts I have already hit with the blue gun that will despawn, will just go back to being able to kill me when they respawn.

Its a mediocre game, and I was expecting a more linear horror game (all I saw was kill ghosts with guns) but it runs smoothly and if you know what kind of game your buying I guess its good? Very repetative though

I'm just going to give it a thumbs up because theres no option that goes in between yes and no

Also I don't know if someone already got the "first to win gets a prize thing" but either way I think I'm fine. A great game for any 4X player.

You can feel the developers understand intimately and passionately the genre.

The AI is very well made and mounts a formidable challenge.

A few 'early access' bugs like background music starts a few minutes in, but nothing to spoil the very enjoyable experience.

I would love to see more immersive artwork added.. A satisfying DLC picking up from where the original left off. Takes a bit of adjustment to understand the new systems, but a welcome addition. I really hope a second DLC is in the works.. Pretty good. 8V10.

I wish it had a more scenes or a way to customize them. What I would like is to be able to import more GLSL shaders from Shader toys or something. This is still fantastic though. What's nice is that you can add in your own VJ clips by just changing the content folders, although I'm disappointed it doesn't have dxv codec support, that's totally understandable at the same time. Just regular mp4/mov files here. While the BPM detection is actually really fantastic, I have also noticed it won't detect BPM below 110, which is disappointing if you work with hiphop at all.

While it's quite a far-cry from Resolume Arena 6, this has been working quite well on the smaller dance nights I do, as well as a backup to switch to if the main computer goes down.

If you are a VJ, then you should know and understand what this software actually is, and you should appreciate how easy it can make your job. Ideally this isn't used as a replacement for your main rig's software, but rather just something to run on a smaller laptop if your main rig goes down.

I absolutely recommend you pick this up if you're a VJ.. Summary: Wicked sick man, so sick bhro. Fun and different with the 3d, I like it more than the classic 2d approach. Online play has some serious flaws and missing features, but not enough to ruin it but still despicable.

Cons: Online Play:

- Missing "Worm Pot" Modifiers, unless doing local machine play. Basically the Worm Pot is an optional system of up to 3 modifiers that you set on a Slot Machine graphic (can randomize with the lever or manually select). These modifiers include things like "Wind Affects All" or "Low Gravity", and theres quite a lot of cool modifiers you can select from. Having this missing online is some ♥♥♥♥♥ bs and is unfortunate.
- HUGE NET DELAY. There is what seems to be about a 3-5 second delay between what you're getting on your end of the game, and the person who's turn it is. Having this out of sync basically makes it so you know what happened and perhaps on mic you reacted to it; but they still have yet to see it. So if you are laughing at some epic ♥♥♥♥♥ of a move, or a shameful display, others won't know until later which is really just uncomfortable more than anything else. Its like having bad reception on a phone call sort of feeling of disappointment. Thing is, how does a turn-based game have this sort of ♥♥♥♥ up in the first place yo? Whoever made the online play should be fired and go back to school. Even a 300ms delay (still sucky) would be 10x better than 5 seconds delay. Any other genre outside turn-based and this would ultimately break the game, obviously. But it doesnt make it okay on this nonetheless.
- Random lags and loading. This is not as bad as the delay issue, but it still is pretty ♥♥♥♥♥t. Its just another side effect of having bad programming for online play. In some cases it will sit and say its loading the map but just freezes, and everyone has to F4 out and reload the game, and the host has to recreate the match. Doesnt happen often but its true ♥♥♥♥♥ry.
- Creating a match in general outside of local play should have more hosting options. Its just straight up lazy and insulting and quite amateur to have just map, game style, number of private slots, and a friend invite system. Those no doubt are needed, but bare minimal if you ask me. Like stated before, the Worm Pot would be a nice beefy feature to satisfy folks like my ♥♥♥♥♥ and perhaps some other settings like a game timer override or a worm health override and some other small customizations. Those can be found as options when making a custom Game Style, but its a bit of work to go and modify an existing one or make a new one since its 7 pages or so of settings and its tucked away in a different menu of the game.

Other Cons:

- Cluster Bombs dont do nearly as much damage per cluster or direct as they should. This being a step up from a normal hand grenade it should totally be doing some more serious damage. In my opinion it should be half as strong as the Banana Bomb.
- Beating levels should unlock weapons automatically. I played through Story past the Knights section and assumed I would get the Holy Grenade as a reward to use for online. It still wasnt showing up in the shop, and was still greyed out in the Game Style options. Not sure how they unlock weapons in the game, maybe you have to beat the game. In that case and either way, I dont think that's fair since most people are probably buying this game to play local games with friends and now (buggy ♥♥♥♥♥ online).
- Game would be funner with more available player slots. This is more of an opinion since the Worms games have always had 4 players only. Not to mention the scale of the levels might have to go up to accomodate 6 or 8, etc; but thats not a big deal. 4 player slots fill up fast when you have friends and family around that have the game. Someone will most likely get left out of the party at some point like some kid with lice; the poor saps.

Pros:

- Funny as ♥♥♥♥♥ like most Worms games
- Addicting Gameplay because all the choices and dynamics that give it replay value up the **♥♥♥♥♥
- Customizing Worms and the things you can buy with the in game coins is pretty diverse enough to make some funny or unique creations. My team is the Ultradouche ♥♥♥♥♥s and they are a sight to behold.
- Despite the online plays low-blow cop-out amateur ♥♥♥♥♥t, its still a lot of fun and you sort of forget those issues exists because how inviting the gameplay is (still doesnt make it okay chimpdicks!)

- Gives you a reason to get on mic and interact and take it easy. Most the times I dont really like getting on mic, but this game is a lot better when you do with friends, even with the huge delay online.

- Awesome and creatively diverse weapons and tools. I like dropping dynamite from the air via jetpack like a baller, or dropping a fat sumo down on the peasants below. Banana Bomb is a personal favorite though and I'm glad its still around and is still devastating.

First problem Player Base im from the EU not sure if that makes a difference but there are no people hosting a online game for anyone to join except 1 wich was from the developer of this game wich had 3 clones of himself in the server and were just being afk.

Second problem is the Resurrection skill so let me explain what this is and does The game is boss vs vikings (max 5 vikings). Vikings get in the default setting 10 shared lives. Now here is the problem the ressurection skill wich all 5 vikings can choose if they want too. does obviously revived down players BUT when they use the skill it doesnt go down from those 10 shared lifes meaning youd need to kill all 5 vikings simultaneously twice if you want to win a fight like that as the boss wich is impossible.

Third problem is gameplay in general. It is clunky you lose track of who you are and where you are most of the time because it is hard to see through everything that is going on. and the controls are also weard and unexplained example the tutorial doesnt tell you that right click targets your aim towards adds instead of the boss. Also you can only read what your character skills do before the match starts wich is roughly a min for the boss you even have to click another i in the top right of the screen you cannot see your abilities in the character menu where you can customize the colors of your characters.

Problem 1 and 2 need to be solved somehow problem 3 sure its clunky but also not so horrible that you cant have fun playing this game.

Also its a easy fix for the second problem if there only would be 1 guy that may have Ressurection selected before you start a match or you would make it a heal instead its problem solved. The first problem however is thougher though for a game that is already out for a month something is wrong already.

As of date 11 April 2019 i would not reccommend buying this game until they fix all of these crucial problems mainly 1 and 2.. Despite the total lack of any spoken or written dialogue, there is a story here (and two different endings!), but it's really short and leaves you wanting more (like me) or wondering wth just happened (also me). I really liked the style and ambiance, the puzzles weren't too hard, and the achievements are all doable in a short amount of time.. Oh my God!!! I'm terrified! Play was fearfully! If you have a weak heart, you should not play this game. But anyone who wants to tickle nerves definitely must playing!. Very enjoyable game for a tenner, there are very few fishing games out there. And even fewer that try to get a "realistic" take on the sport. If you have even a small interest in fishing then i recommend this game. There is nothing that even comes close to this at providing an "authentic" fishing experiece.

Yes, at this stage the game has bugs, what games don't these days?, any game you buy can and will have bugs. However the positives of the game far outweigh the negatives, and as long as development continues and new features are added, for the price of a pizza and some wings you cant really go wrong. A lot of the features and improvements have already been shown in videos and are looking like a massive improvement, really looking forward to seeing this title thrive.. Couldn't get very far because the game crashed repeatedly on Windows 10 x64, always at the same point in the game.. Fun little game. I played to completion with 100% Achievements. I did not have any issues as describe by some users but, I did read through the comments before I got this so, I knew what to expect going in. Not to easy and not to hard so, I would recommend at this price (.99 cents at time of this posting). DOSH! Spend it while you can! Twelve cents per model with the 75% sale. Yes, I have a Steam purchasing addiction.. I'd suggest avoiding this game. I have no clue what kind of game it is, since i couldn't even move in the game (The keybinds didn't work with my KB+M). I also tried to change to controller, but the key mapping doesn't work, so I'd be stuck with some horrible controls. Well, Half of my keybinds for controller are "Left thumbstick" and "Right Thumbstick" and the other half doesn't have any keys bound to them (Because the key mapping just didn't work very well).

The KB+M problem could be because of poor coding in game. Apparently some people has had their KB's detected as something totally different than what they actually are. Controllers, AZERTY instead of QWERTY etc.

With all the no-refunds policies, i would definitely avoid this game. There's a high chance it won't work for you at all (Just look at the forums in the client and in the actual steam forums). Pretty much every single thread is "X is broken", "There's a glitch in Y", "Z got stuck in the wall again" and "Giving away -75% off for free". The only game where the coupons are worth nothing. Not even one card.. great puzzle game works perfectly
